AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of November 1799,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to encourage the Trade into the Levant Seas, by providing a more convenient Mode of performing Quarantine, and for reducing the Duty granted by an Act of the last Session on Goods, the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any Place within the Streights of Gibraltar," it is declared to be expedient to permit Goods and Merchandize to be imported from the Levant, under certain Regulations and Restrictions, without having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Ports or Places mentioned in an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant Seas." And it is enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to grant Licence and Permission for the Importation into Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, coming from the Levant Seas, without clean Bills of Health, without such Goods and Merchandizes having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Places mentioned in the said recited Act; and that all such Goods and Merchandizes shall and may be admitted to an Entry in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations, Rules, Orders, and Directions, with respect to opening and airing such Goods and Merchandizes previous to the landing thereof, and to the Performance of Quarantine by the Crews or other Persons belonging to or being on board of the Ships or Vessels in which such Goods or Merchandizes shall be imported, as His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall by any Order or Orders to be issued as aforesaid, make, prescribe, or direct; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; And whereas His Majesty has been pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-fifth of September last, to direct, That all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandize, which were then arrived, or should thereafter arrive, from the Levant, at any Port or Place of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, without clean Bills of Health, and without having performed Quarantine in any of the Ports of the Mediterranean mentioned in the above recited Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second; and all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever, liable to Quarantine, and not being furnished with clean Bills of Health, from whatever Port or Place the same should come, should (until further Order) perform their Quarantine for the Term mentioned in the said Order in Standgate Creek, and no where else: His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, is hereby pleased to order, that the following provisional Regulations be (until further Order) observed with respect to the due Performance of Quarantine, by all such Ships and the Crews, or other Persons belonging to or on board the said Ships; and with respect to the unpacking, openings, and airing of all the Goods of different Descriptions, imported in Ships arriving without clean Bills of Health.

That as soon as any such Ship shall arrive, the Master and Mate shall immediately proceed in their own Boat (which Boat shall be attended by a Guard Boat) to certain Huts or Tents to be erected on the Beach, for the Purpose of undergoing the neces-lary Examinations; and in addition to the usual printed Quarantine Questions, the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine in Standgate Creek shall make the following Enquiries, which shall be answered separately by the Master and Mate. viz.

- 1st, Was the Cargo taken in at more than One Port; and if so, declare what Part was taken in at each Place?
- 2d, Were there any Letters, Parcels, or other Articles delivered to, or received from any Ship or Vessel met with on the Passage, and what were such Letters, Parcels, or other Articles, respectively?
- 3d, Does the Whole of the Crew and Passengers consist of the same Individuals that were on board at the Time or Times of Departure from the Port or Ports of Loading respectively; and if any Change or Alteration has taken place, point out the same, and the Circumstances which occasioned it?
- 4th, Has any of the Crew, Passengers, or any other Person whatsoever, died on board the Ship during the Voyage, or been sick or ill of any Disorder whatsoever.

That the Answers of the Master and Mates respectively be taken down in Writing, and the Bills of Health, Manifests of the Cargo, and all Letters and Packets, be then and there delivered to the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine, and deposited in a Vessel with Vinegar, and from thence taken out with a Pair of Tongs, and dried in the Smoaking Case: and all Packets containing Inclosures shall be previously slit on the Sides by the Master or Mate, so as to admit of their being completely soaked and fumigated, and shall remain in the Smoaking Case from Twelve to Twenty Hours, at the Discretion of the Superintendent or Superintendants; and if amongst the Parcels there are any that contain more than Papers, such Parcels shall be sent to the Hulks, or Lazarets, and be subjected to the same Quarantine as the Cargo.

That after such Examinations shall be completed, the Master and Mate of the Ship or Vessel shall return on board, and shall become subject to Quarantine until further Order.

That in case it shall appear from the above Examinations, and the Report made to the Commissioners of the Customs by the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine and the Medical Assistants, and from the Bills of Health, and the Manifest of the Cargo, that there is no Reason to apprehend Danger of Infection, the Pilots who may have been taken on board to conduct the Ship from the Downs (or elsewhere) to Standgate Creek, shall be permitted to go on board the Ship appointed for an Hospital Ship, or to go on Shore to a Hut or Tent constructed on the Beach, and provided with Necessaries for their Reception, and shall there perform a Quarantine of Four Days; at the Expiration of which the said Pilots, if they continue free from Appearance of Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine: provided always, that during this Performance of Quarantine the said Pilots shall not have Communication with any other Persons; in Default of which such Pilots shall be detained under Quarantine until further Order.

That after the Pilots shall have been permitted to quit the Ships, all the Boats belonging to such Ships shall be hoisted out, and delivered into the Custody of the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine, who shall cause the said Boats to be moored at a Distance from the Ship; and unless from Circumstances of absolute Necessity, the said Boats shall not be returned until the Ships and Crews are admitted to Pratique.

That not any Thing whatever be delivered from on board the Ships without an Order from the Superintendent or Superintendants.

That nothing, however insusceptible of Infection, be conveyed from one Ship to another, nor any personal Intercourse permitted from Ship to Ship.

That the Guards who may be placed on board a Ship under Quarantine do accompany, when required, the Lighters and the Boats belonging to such Ship, to prevent any Communication in the Transit of the Cargo from the Ship to the Lazaret.

That they do take care, that no Remnants of Cotton, or other Articles susceptible of Infection, remain in the Lighters, but do collect and deliver the same into the Lazarets with the last Package.

That they do take care after the Discharge of the Cargoes into the Lazarets, that the Holds and between Decks of the Ships be completely swept, and the Sweepings be burned.

That they search diligently the Lockers, Chests, &c. of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships, so that nothing remain undelivered to the Lazarets susceptible of Infection, but what is absolutely requisite for daily Use; and do see that the Chests, Clothes, and Bedding be daily opened and aired.

That they do make daily Report to the Superintendent or Superintendants and the Medical Assistants, as to the State of Health of every Person on board; and whether the Regulations of Quarantine are properly complied with.

That in case any Impediment occurs in the Execution of these Duties, Notice be immediately given to the Master of the Ship in the first Instance; and if thereupon such Impediment be not instantly removed, to the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine.

That the Passengers on board all such Ships do perform their Quarantine in like Manner, and for the same Period of Time as the Crews, unless they are desirous of performing it in other Vessels to be hired at their own Expence, in which Case they shall be liable to a Quarantine of Fourteen Days, and at the Expiration thereof, if they continue free from Infection, they shall be fumigated and discharged.

That after the Pilots and the Passengers (provided the latter perform their Quarantine in a separate Vessel) have quitted the Ships in which they arrived, the Hatches of such Ships shall be opened, and the probationary Airing of the Cargo shall commence, in Manner following, that is to say;

Such a Number of Bales of the enumerated Goods as can be ranged upon the Decks of the Ships importing the same, shall be hoisted up and ripped open, so as to admit of the Contents of such Bales being handled or rummaged by the Crews, and under such Process shall remain open for Three Days, and on the Fourth Day shall be sewed up and sent to the Hulks or Lazarets in which they are to perform Quarantine, in the Long Boats belonging to the Ships, or in Lighters conducted by the Crews of the Ships, attended by a Guard Boat; and as soon as the Deck is cleared of the First Parcel of Goods, a Second Parcel shall be hoisted up and treated in the like Manner for the Space of Two Days; after which a Third Parcel in Succession shall be hoisted up and treated in the same Manner for the Space of One Day; but in case of any suspicious Circumstances arising, the probationary Airing shall be extended and prolonged as the Case may require.

That when the the probationary Airing has been completed, provided the Crews and Passengers on board continue free from any Appearance of Infection, the Superintendant or Superintendants of Quarantine shall permit the Ship or Vessel under Quarantine to be hauled alongside the Hulks or Lazarets, into which the Rest of the enumerated Goods of every Description, and the non-enumerated Goods which may be packed in Packages susceptible of Infection, shall be deposited, to be there opened and aired for the Time hereinafter expressed; and the Ships, together with the non-enumerated Goods which may be packed in Packages not susceptible of Infection shall depart from the Hulks or Lazarets to a proper Distance, and shall there commence a Quarantine of Twenty Days, at the Expiration of which (if all the Persons on board continue free from Appearance of Infection) the Ships shall be fumigated and discharged.

That no more than One Ship, Boat, or Vessel of any Kind shall be permitted to be alongside the Hulks or Lazarets at the same Time.

That the following Goods be opened, unpacked, and aired on board the Hulks or Lazarets (unless His Majesty shall, by His Order in Council, think fit to direct otherwise) for the Space of Forty Days, viz.

Hemp and Flax, Paper or Books, Silk raw, thrown, or wrought; Linen, Cotton Wool, Cotton Yarn, or manufactured; Wool, raw, or anywise wrought; Feathers; Grogam, or Mohair Yarn, Human Hair, Goats Hair, Carmenia Wool, Carpets, Camblets, Burdets, or other Manufactures of Silk and Cotton; Kid Skins, and Skins in the Wool or Hair; Spunges, Wine and Oil in Chests; Thread Stockings; Straw Hats and Brushes, Matting, and Artificial Flowers.

That all non-enumerated Goods, except such as are packed in Wood, Glass, or Metal, shall be opened and aired on board the Hulks or Lazarets for the Space of Twenty Days, and that all non-enumerated Goods, stowed loose, or packed in Wood, Glass, or Metal, shall be opened and aired on board the Ships in which they arrive, and shall continue under Quarantine until the Ships are discharged.

That when the Goods are received on board the Hulks or Lazarets, care be taken to place them separately from Goods previously under Quarantine; and that the non-enumerated Goods be stowed apart from the enumerated Goods of the same Cargoes.

That the enumerated Goods be stowed in such Manner as to admit of complete Perflation and Change of Air, and the Bales to have a Seam ripped open all down one Side, and the Porters to thrust in their naked Hands and Arms for Twenty Days successively; after which the Bales to be sewed up and turned over, and the other Side unripped and managed in the same Manner for the Space of Twenty Days more, which shall complete the Quarantine.

That a small Vessel, provided with One or more Assistants, and with proper Necessaries for the Reception of Sick Persons, be stationed in Standgate Creek: that the Northernmost Corner of Chetney-Hill, a Space of Ground of One Hundred and Fifty Feet, be immediately inclosed and fenced, so as to admit of being securely guarded to prevent Escape or Communication; and that Three small Cabins of Wood, not less than Twenty Feet distant from each other, about Twelve or Fifteen Feet square, calculated to hold One Person each, and furnished with proper Necessaries, be erected on Shore near the Beach, with a Door on each of the Four Sides, so that the Sick Person may always be approached on the Windward Side by those who administer Nourishment and Relief to them.

That the Superintendants, and no other Persons, shall supply Persons and Ships in Quarantine with Provisions and other Necessaries; and all Communication to be carried on by Daylight.

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General, and the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or lary Examinations; and in addition to the usual printed Quarantine Questions, the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine in Standgate Creek shall make the following Enquiries, which shall be answered separately by the Master and Mate. viz.

1st, Was the Cargo taken in at more than One Port; and if so, declare what Part was taken in at each Place?

2d, Were there any Letters, Parcels, or other Articles delivered to, or received from any Ship or Vessel met with on the Passage, and what were such Letters, Parcels, or other Articles, respectively?

3d, Does the Whole of the Crew and Passengers consist of the same Individuals that were on board at the Time or Times of Departure from the Port or Ports of Loading respectively; and if any Change or Alteration has taken place, point out the same, and the Circumstances which occasioned it?

4th, Has any of the Crew, Passengers, or any other Person whatsoever, died on board the Ship during the Voyage, or been sick or ill of any Disorder whatsoever.

That the Answers of the Master and Mates respectively be taken down in Writing, and the Bills of Health, Manifests of the Cargo, and all Letters and Packets, be then and there delivered to the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine, and deposited in a Vessel with Vinegar, and from thence taken out with a Pair of Tongs, and dried in the Smoaking Case: and all Packets containing Inclosures shall be previously slit on the Sides by the Master or Mate, so as to admit of their being completely soaked and fumigated, and shall remain in the Smoaking Case from Twelve to Twenty Hours, at the Discretion of the Superintendent or Superintendants; and if amongst the Parcels there are any that contain more than Papers, such Parcels shall be sent to the Hulks, or Lazarets, and be subjected to the same Quarantine as the Cargo.

That after such Examinations shall be completed, the Master and Mate of the Ship or Vessel shall return on board, and shall become subject to Quarantine until further Order.

That in case it shall appear from the above Examinations, and the Report made to the Commissioners of the Customs by the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine and the Medical Assistants, and from the Bills of Health, and the Manifest of the Cargo, that there is no Reason to apprehend Danger of Infection, the Pilots who may have been taken on board to conduct the Ship from the Downs (or elsewhere) to Standgate Creek, shall be permitted to go on board the Ship appointed for an Hospital Ship, or to go on Shore to a Hut or Tent constructed on the Beach, and provided with Extract of a Letter from Lord Viscount Duncan, Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Yarmouth the 24th Instant.

I Transmit, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Searle, commanding the Courier Cutter, whom I had ordered to reconnoitre the Ports of Helvoet and Flushing, giving an Account of his having taken and brought in here, Le Guerier Cutter belonging to Dunkirk, of superior Force, and have no Doubt this Officer's Gallantry and good Conduct, on the present as well as former Occasions, will recommend him to their Lordships' Attention.

Courier, Yarmouth Roads, November 24, 1799.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that in pursuance of your Orders of the 21st Instant, I proceeded to Sea, and at Five P. M. on the Day following observed a suspicious Sail bringing-to a Bark, when I hauled my Wind to speak them, and in passing the latter, was informed the Chace was an Enemy; I immediately made all possible sail after her, and had the good Luck to come up with her next Morning at Nine A. M. Lowestoffe N. W. by W. Ten or Twelve Leagues, when after a close Action of Fifty Minutes, she struck her Colours, and proved to be Le Guerier Cutter Privateer, mounting Fourteen Guns, Four-Pounders, with 44 Men, commanded by Citizen Felix L. Sallemant, out Five Days from Dunkirk, and had captured the Nile Brig, of London, laden with Coals.

I think it my Duty to notice to your Lordship, I received every Assistance and Support from Mr. Morgan the Mate, and the Rest of the Ship's Company; at the same Time I have to lament the Loss of Mr. Stephen Marsh, the Master, who was killed at the Commencement of the Action, and Two Men wounded. The Loss on the Part of the Enemy was Four killed and Six wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

T. SEARLE.

*Right Hon. Lord Viscount Duncan,

Admiralty-Office, November 26, 1799.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lutwidge, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Downs, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 25th Instant.

SIR,

Enclosed I transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter from Lieutenant Young, commanding the Ann Cutter, giving an Account of his having captured a small Privateer.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

S. LUTWIDGE.

Ann, Cutter, Downs, Nov. 25, 1799.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that on the Evening of the 21st Instant, after a Chace of Five Hours, Beachy-Head bearing N. N. E. distant Three or Four Leagues, I captured Le Petit Diable French Cutter Privateer, Monsieur Simon Robert Salutat, Commander, out Two Days from Dieppe, with small Arms only, and Eight Men on board, the Remainder having been sent in a light Sloop, cut out of Seaford Roads on the Night of the 20th Instant, and sent for France.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. YOUNG, Lieutenant.

Vice-Admiral Lutwidge.

Whitehall, November 26, 1799.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Reverend Charles Henry Hall, Clerk, Bachelor in Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Canonry of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in the University of Oxford, the same being void by the Death of Doctor Thomas Shafto, late Canon thereof.

Whitehall, November 26, 1799.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Reverend ——— Demplster to be Assistant and Successor to the Reverend Thomas Fergus, Minister of the Church and Parish of Denny, in the Presbytery and County of Stirling.

Whitehall, November 19, 1799.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that between the Hours of Three and Four o'Clock in the Morning of Tuesday the 29th of October last, Two Hay Ricks, the Property of Mr. Francis Holland, of Market Deeping, in the County of Lincoln, Surgeon and Apothecary, were discovered to be in Flames; and that it appeared evident, from different concurring Circumstances, that the same were wilfully and maliciously set fire to by some evil-disposed Person or Persons.

And whereas it has further been humbly represented to His Majesty, that an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was put under the Office Door (on the Friday following) of Mr. H. Butler, the Post-Master, at Market Deeping aforesaid:

Mr. H. Butler,

If you wish Doctor Holland well, send this Post haste ——— Send this Post haste Mr. Butler or by God you shall suffer and all ——— Down with the Reed-roof Bob
